

Seeking ways to improve services for women

SUN PHOTOS BY BETSY WILLIAMS

The Charlotte, Glades, Hendry Breast Health Forum held Wednesday morning at The Cultural Center of Charlotte County to develop a mutual understanding of the availability of breast health services and service disparities in all three counties was facilitated by Susan G. Komen for the Cure Southwest Florida Affiliate, education committee and sponsored by Advanced Imaging of Port Charlotte. Among those attending were Rita Bertler, president of the Dollars for Mammograms Inc. of Charlotte County; Mary Ann Loh, Susan G. Komen for the Cure SWF board member; Candice Dietrich, physicians relations director at Fawcett Memorial Hospital; and Julie Sprague, education coordinator with Susan G. Komen for the Cure.

Miriam Ross, executive director with Susan G. Komen for the Cure Southwest Florida; Janet Martire, Charlotte County Health Department's breast services cancer program; and Judy Litt, with Lucy's Angels of LaBelle, visit before the second half of the forum.