

Kids Festival promotes healthy lifestyle

HERALD PHOTOS BY BETSY WILLIAMS

Laura Korman, chiropractor and nutritionist, and her assistant Melanie Schultz, with their pumpkin-decorated table promoting the season and healthy ways for children and their families.

Cousins Vajaun Brown, 6, dressed as a cowboy, and Synsei Chanelle, 6, dressed as a cat, spent Saturday morning going from one table to the next inside the Harold Avenue Recreation Center's gym, enjoying the many activities offered at the Healthy Kids Festival. Sponsored by the Charlotte County Park, Recreation & Cultural Resources the first time event was a partnership with Fire & EMS, the Health Department, Highway Patrol, other service agencies, area businesses, and churches to help promote healthy, happy, families.

At left: Angela and Alexis Delleapenna-Carrasquillo, five-year-old twins, Will Carrasquillo, 9, and his sister Keilah, 8, dressed in costume for the Healthy Kids Festival held Saturday.

